Merchants' and Miners' Steamer Howard Arrives in Port With a New Passenger.

HELD FOR GRAND LARCENY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., January 31.—While en roule to Norfolk on the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company's liner Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Toawandy Tarsian, Armenians, were visited by the stork in midoccan on Wednesday, bringing a bouncing twelve-pound boy It was the first visit of this bird to the steamer Howard, and a celebration followed, the youngster receiving the name Howard Vanegau Tarsian.

The family arrived in Norfolk on the steamer this morning. The mother and child were doing well, and went immediately to St. Vincent's Hospital, where they will remain until able to travel by rail to North Carolina, where the family will purchase land and settle down to farm. There are two sons, both well grown, in the family and it is the first visit of the stork for a dozen years or more.

The family are not immigrants, but left the cold and bleak New England country to establish a home in the Old North State. They sailed from Boston last Monday. The father and youngest son continued the journey to North Carolina, the oldest son remaining with his method.
